Reader's Opinions

I love spies and I love comics, but I just could not get into this book. Maybe this book is only for people who have read all the previous volumes.

I thought the last volume was a little off-track, but this one was much better. A few different artists worked on this one, but the art was nice in every case. We start off with some character development showing Tara meeting her mother in Europe. They have a very strained relationship. It seems her mother is about to marry some man...
