Reader's Opinions

Not bad! I wasn't all that impressed with the story at first. Then I started to think about how it was written. It really does read like some guy simply rambling about what he's been through. Rob is no one special, just a regular guy who ends up having a rather bad few days. He's far from an action hero, but he does come across as a guy...

Hard to kill! I really liked this one. Set in a small community for the most part you get a different perspective on how zombies might be. A well thought out storyline that...
