Reader's Opinions

Inshallah (God willing) tells the tale of a handsome English Christian boy and a beautiful Saudi Muslim girl who quite by accident fall in love in a country where the relationship is impossible. Banned on both religious and cultural grounds the difficulties the couple have to surmount leads the story through many twists and turns to...

Inshallah (God Willing) was originally written in 1978. It is a sweet love story in almost impossible circumstances. Jinniya is a traditionally raised Saudi girl, who falls in love with an Englishman named Mark. This story left me feeling very conflicted. There is a major part of me that sympathizes with Jinniya's father. I too am devoted...
