

UNMASKED

Laney Holden is always blindfolded during her encounters with Alex, but not knowing what he looks like doesn't discourage her from seeing him. She loves what she's found in room 237... until a slip on his part gives away that she knows him outside of The Club. She becomes obsessed with learning his identity and must decide whether it matters enough to potentially destroy what they have. As her list of suspects grows, her investigation into Alex takes her...

Reader's Opinions

I can't seem to get enough of Emma Payne's books. They are so amazing and all of them are must reads. This one was really a great read, from learning about the characters, the twists and then how things end, its just wow!
