Reader's Opinions

Dalene Matthee has an incredible way of describing life in the Forest in South Africa in the 19th century (read also Fiel's Child)! I got sucked in with all the detail, I felt like I was living there. Although it was set over 100 years ago, many of the stories are relevant today. Not to mention the whole theme...

An absolutely beautiful story about one mans relationship with the forest, and how, no matter the times he tries to leave, he can never escape it.Saul Barnard was born a woodcutter, raised...
