Reader's Opinions

I listened to the audio book from audible. It's basically a recording of a series of lectures Goldratt must have given somewhere in the early 200x. I've read 'The Goal' before and expected some more insights into the process of uncovering the constraints. I was a bit taken back by the way Goldratt presents the content. Sometimes sarcastic,...

Goldratt is a great speaker, he has strong convictions and explains them really well. There is some real gold in the last few chapters about company strategy and getting everyone committed, a mix of group dynamics and working personally with different types of people to get their buy in. This is a great way to...
