

PUNISH THE WICKED: A DYSTOPIAN HORROR

DARK DAYS APPROACH: A black prophecy of the future escapes from beneath the broken and snowbound streets of Old Russia. Fierce growls and thunderous drumbeats echo from within subterranean slums. Drunk and drugged voices, the underclass of the Middle Eastern Union, scrape together a bleak and bitter existence. Addicts, criminals, workers,...

Reader's Opinions

This was a bit outside of my usual genres, but I do love a good dystopia. Punish the Wicked felt a bit like 1984, but more metal. The society created was intriguing, and it is clear that thought went into creating laws and technologies that make sense for the people living in it. I'm excited to see what Nicholas Morine will write next....
