Reader's Opinions

This book was brought to my attention by Jason Silva (of YouTube's ShotsofAwe), to whom I owe my gratitude. It was a great read! This book was extremely ambitious! But it's also suspiciously hard to get a hold of...unless you have deep pockets. After rejecting amazon's listed price of $900, I found that eBay offered a lightly worn...

A pretty profound book. I'd not considered death so wrapped up in everything until this book. The first part really made it clear to me. The latter parts of the book could be skipped for those who've read a lot of sci-fi: it's essentially a dry summary of some great Arther C Clarke plots, emphasising they could well happen.
