Reader's Opinions

Very good book about the history behind the 160th. A good read if you want to learn about the wild tales of special operations helicopter pilots. Provides an interesting perspective on my conflicts the united states has entered over the past few decades.

US Navy SEALs and SEAL TEAM 6 are currently the super-stars of the media and are rightly deserved too. Special Operations teams seldom work alone and one of the crucial elements that took part in the recent Osama...
