Peek Inside the Book

So if you're living your life around a temporary role and allowing your treasure chest to remain barren in terms of your only real permanent role, then you're letting yourself be seduced by the culture and robbed of the true richness of your life—the deep and lasting satisfaction that only comes through family relationships. Stephen R. Covey, The...

if you organize your family life to spend even ten or fifteen minutes a morning reading something that connects you with these timeless principles, it's almost guaranteed that you will make better choices during the day in the family, on the job, in every dimension of life. Stephen R. Covey, The 7 Habits...

Reader's Opinions

7 Habits of Highly Effective families follows the same principals as the Highly Effective people. I think it's a great book even if you read it as a refresher/motivator to keep your home life functional and happy.
