Reader's Opinions

This is the first book I have read by Luanne Rice and I was pleasantly surprised. Initially, I was afraid it was just your typical romance story with all of the predictable scenes. Rice spun a wonderful tale with lots of interesting material about the history of the French Camargue, tying in gypsies, curses, white horses, a mother's...

Gypsies came from India to Egypt and gypsy is a derivative of Egypt. Rom (Romany) means "human". Patron saint is Sarah (Sara-la-Kali) the black servant girl from Egypt who came to Stes. Maries-de-la-Mer (on the Gulf of Lions, the Camargue in Provence, France) with the three Marys, (Mary Magdalene, Mary Jacoby, Mary Salome) Martha and...
