No genuine artist views himself as superior in essence to others. Laurence G. Boldt, Zen and the Art of Making a Living: A Practical Guide to Creative Career Design

Reader's Opinions

"Zen tells us that if we want to be free to play, we must be done with the agitation of envy and shame. otherwise, we can be triggered, through prize and ridicule, into performing like...

this is a big one and i will be referencing it for a while. really great follow up/ companion to Sark's book making your creative dreams a reality. The beginning of this book really sounds a lot like Ishmael which is what drew me into it.
