

JUST ANOTHER NIGHT

A graveyard in the dead of night. While most would avoid such an eerie setting, for three friends looking for a safe place to toke up, it is the perfect place to get high without getting caught. Unfortunately, for these stoners, fate has given them more to worry about than nosy cops. In the blink of a bloodshot eye, all hell breaks loose... literally. As forces beyond the friends' perception and control turn a calm night in a marijuana-haze into a terror-filled bloodbath all...

Reader's Opinions

The enforcer is back people, and he's taking no prisoners. In this short, we see Xander at his finest, and the lack of regret he has for his position of enforcer for...

I received this book from the author for an honest review. Within a few pages the author has transformed a surreal graveyard into a Zombie Zone! The Author takes us deep inside the mind of Xander as he struggles with what is right and wrong in his world. Defending an innocent while taking down a living corpse is not always cut and...
