Reader's Opinions

These 3 books (The Trees, The Fields, & The Town) are collectively known as The Awakening Land Series. They give an accurate view of what life was like for pioneers settling into N. America, specifically migrating from Pennsylvania to the wild unsettled area of what is now Ohio. They are narrated by the main character who begins the...

Continuing Richter's Awakening Land saga from where The Trees left off, this book marks a southeastern Ohio settlement's period of transition between forested, hunter-gatherer society and a small agricultural village. Fittingly, a much larger amount of the conflict in The Fields takes place between the Lucketts (now the Wheelers after...
