Reader's Opinions

So I read this book after I really liked its first book, but I don't really know how to feel about this one. So from my impressions from the last book, I loved Elara's face-first character while Wiha always struck me as kind of pathetic. In this book, I don't know what happened. Elara turns...

I knew as soon as I finished The Princess in the Opal Mask that I wasn't going to like this book, I knew it! But being the glutton for punishment I am I read it anyway, and I am so not a happy camper right now. (-_-)
